[TABLE OF STATUTES.

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1865.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

179] Leeds Court of Bankruptcy, Motion, That a Select Committee be appointed, "to inquire into all the circumstances connected with the resignation of Mr. Henry Sedgwick Wilde as Registrar of the Court of Bankruptcy at Leeds; the granting him a pension; the appointment of Mr. Welch to the said office; and whether he was to resign his appointment in favour of the Honourable Richard Bethell and receive another appointment in London" (Mr. Ferrand); after long debate, Motion agreed to; Select Committee appointed May 23, 775
180] And, on May 30, List of Committee reported from the General Committee of Elections as follows:—Mr. Howes (Chairman), Mr. E. C. Egerton, Mr. T. W. Evans, Colonel Pennant, Mr. H. H. . Amendt. To leave out from "That," and add "this House having considered the Report of the Select Committee on the Leeds Bankruptcy Court, and the evidence taken by it, agrees with the Committee in the opinion that the facts which are established acquit the Lord Chancellor from all charge in the matters to which it refers, except that of haste and want of caution in granting a pension to Mr. Wilde; but this House is of opinion that some further check should be placed by Law upon the grant of pensions to the holders of legal offices" (The Lord Advocate), 1072; Question, "That the words, &c.," put, and negatived; Question, "That those words be there added"

. Another Amendt. To add, after the first word "That," in the original Question, the words "This House, having considered the Report of the Committee on the Leeds Bankruptcy Court, and the Evidence taken before them, are of opinion, that, while the Evidence discloses the existence of corrupt practices, with reference to the appointment of Patrick Robert Welch to the office of Registrar of the Leeds Bankruptcy Court, they are satisfied that no imputation can fairly be made against the Lord Chancellor, with regard to this appointment; and that such evidence, and also that taken before a Committee of the Lords to inquire into the circumstances connected with the resignation of Mr. Edmunds of the offices held by him, and laid before this House, show a laxity of practice and a want of caution with regard to the public interests, on the part of the Lord Chancellor, in sanctioning the grant of Retiring Pensions to Public Officers against whom grave charges were pending, which,

South Kensington New Road Bill
c. Moved, "That the Bill be re-committed to the former Committee" (Mr. Henry Seymour) June 16, [180] 60; after short debate, Motion withdrawn

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. Denison), Nottinghamshire, N.
Amendment—Order of moving—Motion, "That a Select Committee be appointed, &c." (Sir J. Pakington)—Amendment, to add certain words (Mr. Walter)—Mr. H. Seymour proposed an addition to the Order of Reference. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member could not move the Amendment at present. No Amendment having been proposed to the first branch of the Original Motion, that part would stand and would have to be submitted to the House in its complete form. But the Question now before the House was whether the words proposed by the hon. Member for Berkshire should be added; and if any hon. Member proposed an Amendment on those words it would be open to the consideration of the House.—Motion for a Select Committee on Education, [177] 916

Amendment—An Amendment on the Question, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," would, if agreed to, negative the Motion to go into Committee.—Poor Law Board Continuance Bill, [180] 720

Bills—What to originate in Committee of the Whole House—Mr. Cowper having moved for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Commissioners of Works and Buildings "to acquire additional Lands for improving the Site of the New Public Offices in Downing Street and the Approaches thereto," it was objected that the Bill ought to originate in a Committee of the Whole House. Mr. Speaker said the object of the Bill was to enable the Government to take ground for certain purposes—it did not give them the power to purchase the property; the funds for that purpose should be voted afterwards in Committee of the Whole House—There was, therefore, no question of Order.—Public Offices (Site and Approaches) Bill, [177] 1301, 1308

Bills — Amendments — Relevancy to subject-matter of Bill—On debate on Union Chargeability Bill, Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member for Shoreham (Mr. Cave) had introduced the question of Mines; but in a conversation with him he had pointed out to him that the clause was not relevant to the subject-matter of the Bill, [179] 342

Bill—Reading a Bill—No doubt according to ancient usage the clerk at the table may be called upon to read a Bill, which the House has ordered to be read a [second] time—This usage is now quite obsolete, and the modern practice is a sufficient reading.—Drainage and Improvement of Land (Ireland) Provisional Order Confirmation Bill, [178] 181

Bills—Public and Private Bills—The Liverpool Licensing Bill, introduced as a Private Bill, proposed to alter the general law of the country in respect of licensing and licences as applicable to the borough of Liverpool—Objected, that it was a subject not proper to be dealt with by a Private Bill. Mr. Speaker said that the Bill was brought in in the ordinary manner upon petition. He must draw a distinction between the form of the Bill and the subject-matter of the Bill. There was nothing contrary to form in the manner in which the Bill had been introduced. Whether the subject-matter of the Bill was proper for a Private Bill was for the House, not for Mr. Speaker, to decide.—Liverpool Licensing Bill, [177] 653

Bills—"Hybrid" Bills — According to the General Local Government Act the proper course is that a Local Government Bill, against which a petition is presented, shall be referred to a Select Committee, [178] 1034

Bills—"Hybrid" Bills—When a Bill is introduced into this House as a Public Bill which involves private interests, it is subjected to the same examination which is provided for Private Bills; but strictly Private Bills are never turned into hybrids. — Westminster Improvement Bill, [180] 44

Bills—Private Bills—Appointment of Referees. Mr. Speaker acquaints the House that he has appointed Mr. Hugh Adair and Mr. Hassard, Members of this House, together with Mr. Rickards, his Counsel, to serve as Referees on Private Bills under the Standing Order of last Session, [177] 98

Private Bills—The Court of Referees—Mr. Speaker offers his personal thanks to those Gentlemen who had taken upon themselves the duties of the Court of Referees at his request, [180] 876

Committee—Instruction—Order for Committee read: Mr. Bentinck moved an Instruction to Committee: Mr. Villiers objected—That the Poor Law Board had at present ample power to do what the right hon. Gentleman pointed at (to alter the limits of existing Unions). Mr. Speaker said, "The Question is, not whether the Poor Law Board has the power, but whether the Committee on this Bill would have the power without the Instruction to do so; and, in Mr. Speaker's opinion, the Committee would not have that power, because the subject-matter would not be relevant to the subject-matter of the Bill.—Union Chargeability Bill, [179] 116

Committee—Instruction—Time for Moving—The proper time for moving an Instruction to a Committee on a Bill is after the Order of the Day, and before the Motion "That Mr. Speaker do leave the Chair."—Union Chargeability Bill, [179] 116

Debate—Explanation—A Member may explain what requires explanation in his own speech, but he must not reply.—Dockyard Superintendents—Resolution, [180] 397

Debate—Effect of negativing the Motion that Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair, and the Amendment thereon—Question proposed, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair;" an Amendment moved; Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question," put, and negatived; Question, "That the words, &c., be added instead thereof," put, and negatived. Mr. Hanbury Tracy rose to address the House. Lord R. Montagu asked whether it was competent to address the House on the word "That" (being the only word left of the original Motion). Mr. Speaker said the noble Lord had justly pointed out what the course of the House had been. It had negatived the Motion that I do leave the Chair, and it had declined to add the words which were just now the subject of discussion: but he (Mr. Speaker) apprehended that the hon. Member (Mr. Tracy) was about to supply the deficiency, by suggesting some words to be added to the word "That," which might, perhaps, be more acceptable to the House.—Dockyard Superintendents—Resolution, [180] 400

In such a case it is necessary, in order to the due forms of the House, that any hon. Member addressing the House should conclude with a Motion; it is also necessary that due notice should have been given of that Motion, [180] 410

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion—To discuss a Motion of which Notice has been given, but which is not yet before the House, not in order, [180] 1092

Amendment—An Amendment on the Question "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" would, if agreed to, negative the Motion to go into Committee.—Poor Law Board Continuance Bill, [180] 720

Debate—Resolutions in Supply—There are two opportunities upon which any hon. Member desiring to address the House on the subject of the Defences of Canada (the subject of a previous Resolution) might have done so—one upon the Question that the Resolution should be read a second time, and the other upon the Question that the House should agree with the Committee in the Resolution relating to that subject, [178] 362

Debate—Interruption of a Member speaking for the purpose of explanation, irregular.—Law of Landlord and Tenant (Ireland), [178] 619; [179] 572

Debate—Latitude of speaking in presenting Documents—Mr. H. A. Bruce in laying a Minute of the Council of Education on the table proposed to make an explanatory statement—Mr. A. Smith rose to Order—He desired to know whether it was competent to the right hon.Gentleman to make a statement on papers only just laid on the table. Mr. Speaker said there was nothing out of order in the course the right hon. Gentleman was pursuing.—Endowments for Education—Minute of Council, [178] 1536

Debate—Reference to a previous Debate—The hon. Member (Mr. Roebuck) is not confining himself to a personal explanation—He states that the whole transaction to which he is referring is a disgrace to Her Majesty's Government—meaning the whole subject of the debate which has recently taken place. It is for the House to say whether that is regular; but, in my opinion, the course which has been pursued in reviving a discussion which lately took place, is not in accordance with the Rules of the House.—The Ionian Islands Debate, [178] 378

Debate—Reference to anything said in a previous debate against the Rules of the House, [177] 1928, 1930; [179] 433, 1041 [180] 267

Debate—Reference to a Speech made in the other House of Parliament irregular, [177] 1557; [179] 770, 849

Debate—A letter commenting on a debate in this House is not in order, [178] 373

Debate—Relevancy to Question—In debate on the Union Chargeability Bill, reference was made to the rating of mines. Mr. Speaker said, that to discuss the subject of mines was not relevant to the matter before the House, [179] 342; [180] 836

Debate—Relevancy in—Resolutions in Supply, March 24, reported—Several Resolutions read 2° and agreed to—On Res. 9, Mr. Bentinck referred to the Vote for Defences of Canada, and moved the adjournment of the

House. Mr. Speaker said, that to continue the discussion on a Resolution which had already been disposed of was quite irregular; the Question now before the House was that the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution—To that Resolution, therefore, the debate ought to be confined—Although the Motion for the adjournment had been regularly before the House, still it would not have been open to the hon. Member to enter on a discussion of the Vote for the Defences of Canada, which had already been agreed to.—Supply—Resolutions, March 24, reported, [178] 360

Form—Personal Explanation—Motion — Mr. Baillie Cochrane having offered a personal explanation concluded by moving "That the House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker observed, that the hon. Member would better satisfy the Rules of the House by not moving the adjournment.—The Ionian Islands Debate, [178] 374

Motion—Time for making—Sir Charles Douglas having put a Question of which he had given notice, concluded by moving "That this House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker said, This is the time for the Questions—The Motion of the hon. Gentleman should have been made at the time of the Notices of Motion.—Convictions under Refreshment Houses Act, [177] 452

Notice—Command Papers—Mr. H. A. Bruce having presented, by command, a Minute of the Council of Education, proposed to make an explanatory statement—Sir J. Pakington objected that no notice had been given. Mr. Speaker said, that the fact that the paper was laid upon the table by command caused a distinction as to the necessity of giving notice.—Endowments for Education—Minute of Council, [178] 1537

Notices of Motion and Orders of the Day—Mr. Speaker informs the House that he has directed that a copy of all Notices of Motion and Orders of the Day standing on the Order Book of the House be circulated among Members every Saturday morning, [177] 322

Order—Motion, "That this House do now adjourn"—Colonel Greville, having put a Question of which he had given notice, followed by some observations, "put himself in order" by moving the adjournment of the House—Mr. Baillie Cochrane rose to order. Mr. Speaker said, that the House had reserved to its Members the right of moving the adjournment.—Administration of Justice in Ireland, [177] 1829

Public Documents—Mr. Ferrand asked the Attorney General to inform the House by whose authority the written statement was prepared from which, on Monday last, he read his replies to the Questions relating to the Leeds Bankruptcy Court [and as to other papers read on the same occasion]—The Attorney General commented on the extraordinary nature of the Question, and declined to treat the papers referred to as public documents. Mr. Speaker said, public despatches, documents, and papers relating to public affairs,

if read and quoted by Ministers, may be called for to be laid on the table; but the Attorney General has stated the distinction which he draws in this case, and which distinction certainly appears to me to be a just one.—The Leeds Registrarship—Question, [179] 489

Public Documents—Reading of Documents in this House—Sir R. Peel proposing to read the opinion of the Attorney General for Ireland in reference to the O'Connell Procession in Dublin, Sir H. Cairns rose to order—he desired also to hear the statement of facts on which the opinion was based—Mr. Whiteside also rose to Order—he had always understood that the opinions of the Law Officers of the Crown given to the Crown were private communications, and they had always been refused by the Government. Mr. Speaker said, the Orders of the House are not in any way involved in the proceeding—If a document is read in the House it may be called for and made a public document; but its production in debate is not against the Rules of the House.—Riots in Belfast—The Royal Commission, [177] 354, 355

END OF VOLUME CLXXX., AND FOURTH AND LAST VOLUME OF SESSION 1865.

LONDON: CORNELIUS BUCK, PRINTER, 23, PATERNOSTER-ROW.

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1866.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

When in the Index a † is prefixed to a Name or an Office (the Member having accepted or vacated office during the Session) and to Subjects of Debate thereunder, it indicates that the Speeches on those Subjects were delivered in the speaker's private or official character, as the case may be.

Mr. Speaker said, that the Amendment was in possession of the House, and it was for the House to decide whether they would grant permission to the hon. Gentleman to make the change he proposed.—Debate on the Address, [181] 273

Amendment on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair"—Representation of the People Bill: Committee—Notice given of Amendments to Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair"—Motion made that this Bill and the Re-distribution of Seats Bill be referred to the same Committee, and agreed to—Instruction to the Committee agreed to—The only Amendment that could be moved to the Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," was [the first] that of the hon. Member for Wells; and the House having decided that Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair, the opportunity for moving any other Amendment had gone by

An hon. Member had given notice to move an Amendment on Question "That Mr. Speaker, &c.," on order for Committee on the first of these Bills—The opportunity had passed by—The proper time for raising the Question was by objecting to the Motion for reference of both Bills to the same Committee; in which case the second Bill must have been postponed, [183] 1918

Amendments on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair."—Mr. Speaker explains the application of Standing Order July 19, to the circumstances attending the close of the debate on Amendment to Motion that he do now leave the Chair, on order of the day for the House to go into Committee on the Representation of the People Bill, June 4, [183] 1918, 1947

Bills—When a Bill is brought in it is at once read a first time — Representation of the People Bill, [181] 1286

Bills—Passing a Bill through several stages at one sitting—Notice—The Indemnity Bill, having been read a second time, committed, reported, and considered, it was moved "That the Bill be now read the third time"—Mr. Darby Griffith asked whether more notice ought not to have been given, when it was intended to pass a Bill through all its stages, than the mere Motion of a Member of the Government? Mr. Speaker said, that under such circumstances it was competent to any hon. Member to interfere; but if the body of the House was satisfied that there was no objection, then it had not been unfrequent that a Bill, if it had been passed through Committee without Amendment or objection, should be read a third time and passed in the same day, [184] 2107

Bills—Reprints of Bills—The usual course before reprinting a Bill, is that the House should go into Committee pro formâ, and afterwards that the Bill should be re-committed; but if any other course is for the convenience of Members, there is no objection to its adoption —Representation of the People Bill, and Redistribution of Seats Bill, [183] 344

Chairman of Committees—An hon. Member having asked Mr. Speaker whether on going into Committee on the first Naval Vote, Members would be allowed to discuss the Estimates at large? Mr. Speaker said, that the Question should be addressed to the Chairman of Committees—Masters in the Royal Navy, [181] 1320

Debate—Limitation in Explanation—Court of Queen's Bench (Ireland), [183] 355; [184] 1667

Debate—Explanation—Interruption of a Member for the purpose of explanation, irregular —Court of Queen's Bench (Ireland), [183] 800

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion— A Member may speak generally on a subject before the House; but to speak of a proposal of which he has given Notice for a future day, is not in order—Representation of the People Bill, [183] 1334

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion— A Member who has given Notice of a Motion to be made at a later period of the evening, cannot by anticipation go into that Question by moving the adjournment of the House—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965; [184] 1536

Debate—Discussion of a Bill not before the House—In debate on the Representation of the People (England) Bill, an hon. Member complained of a provision in the Irish Bill. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was not in order in discussing the Reform Bill for Ireland, as that measure was not before the House, [183] 918

Debate—Reference to a past Debate—A Member is out of order in referring to a debate which has taken place during the present Session, [183] 1450; [184] 2139

Debate—To quote a speech made in the other House during the present Session, not in order. —Tenure and Improvement of Land (Ireland) Bill, [183] 1098

Debate—To read a letter which makes comment on the debates of this House, not in order.—Army—Musketry Instruction, [183] 826

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions — To assert that an hon. Gentleman makes a statement which he knows to be unfounded is going beyond the Parliamentary limits of debate—And Mr. Speaker called upon the

Member who had used this expression to apologize or retract the words objected to.— The Irish Bench, [183] 801

Debate—The House having exhibited marked impatience during the speech of an hon. Member, Mr. Speaker appealed to him, considering the length of time that had been already spent, that he should exercise forbearance, and not proceed further with his address.—Fenian Conspiracy—Motion for a Committee, [183] 1696

Committees—Instructions—An Instruction is not in the nature of an Amendment to the Motion for going into Committee, and therefore Amendments to that Motion are not interfered with by an Instruction.—Representation of the People, &c. Bill, [183] 921

Divisions—Any Member who has first given his voice with the "Ayes," and then says that the "Noes" have it, in order to force a division, does an irregular and un-Parliamentary thing

A Member who, having given his voice with the "Ayes," and the Speaker having declared that "The Ayes have it," challenges the decision of the Speaker by saying "The Noes have it," will have to vote with the "Noes." —Representation of the People Bill, [183] 1919

Election Committees—The Bridgwater Election Committee having reported, the evidence having been laid on the Table of the House, and the House having acted upon it and issued the writ; it is beyond the province of a private Member to interrogate the Chairman now as to the proceedings of that Committee.—Bridgwater Election — Question, [183] 1797

Members' Appropriation of Seats in the House —The Order of the House, made some years ago, is that the only way to secure a seat shall be by attendance at prayers, and that then a card shall be placed at the back of the seat April 20, [182] 1765

Motion of which notice has been given may be changed to a Question—A Member having given notice that he will, at a later period of the evening, on going into Committee of Supply, make a Motion on a certain subject, has the liberty, if he pleases, of changing that Motion into the form of a Question; but in putting that Question, he is bound to observe the prescribed rules.—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965

Motion—A Motion having been proposed is in the possession of the House and cannot be withdrawn without leave (see Amendment), [181] 273

Motion "That the House do now adjourn"— Colonel Sykes having brought to the attention of the House the conduct of the Acting Governor of Hong Kong, and concluded by Motion pro formâ "That the House do now adjourn"—Mr. Watkin rose to Order, and inquired whether it was competent to the hon. and gallant Member to make that Motion, there being a notice of Motion on the paper "That the House do adjourn until

Monday." Mr. Speaker said, that Supply not being on the paper, there was nothing to prevent the hon. and gallant Member from making the Motion "That the House do now adjourn," [184] 2050

Mr. Henley having moved "That the debate be now adjourned," which was negatived on division, moved "That the House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker said, it was not competent for the right hon. Gentleman to make that Motion after the last Motion which he had made.—Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Bill, [184] 1449

Orders of the Day—The Government having the power of arranging the Orders (on Government nights) in the way which may appear to them most convenient for the despatch of public business; and the Committee on Ways and Means, and the Committee on the National Debt Acts, which were intended to stand together, having been accidentally separated in the notices distributed on Saturday, the Clerk directed them to be printed together in the Orders of the Day for Monday evening, [183] 563

Parliamentary Papers—Lord Robert Montagu having complained that copies of the Cattle Diseases Act had not been delivered to Members, although it was stated (in the Notices) to have been 'delivered' the previous day, and numerous copies had been sold to the public—Mr. Speaker said, that the House had no immediate control over the Queen's printer, but that a communication should be made to the Clerk of the Parliaments to prevent the recurrence of such a circumstance, [181] 901

Question may be substituted for a Motion of which notice has been given—A Member having given notice that he will, at a later period of the evening, on going into Committee of Supply, make a Motion on a certain subject, has the liberty, if he pleases, of changing that Motion into the form of a Question; but in putting that Question, he is bound to observe the prescribed rules.—Queen's University and Queen's Colleges (Ireland), [181] 965

Questions—Ministerial replies to Questions—When a Question is asked and a Member of the Government rises to reply, it is proper that he should be allowed to do so at once; and that hon. Members should reserve further Questions till that reply has been given, [184] 238

Speaker's Warrants—Election Committees—The Speaker's warrant is simply a warrant commanding attendance before an Election Committee; and the only reason for applying to the Speaker for his warrant is, that until the Committees are appointed, there is no Chairman with authority to issue his warrant to summon witnesses before them.—Devonport Election, [181] 1302

Votes and Proceedings of the House—The 'days of the week' and the 'months' in the Votes, which have hitherto been in Latin, to be henceforth in English, [181] 107

Question, Mr. Horsfall ; Answer, Lord Stanley Feb 14, [185] 340

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. Denison) Nottinghamshire, N.

Question proposed, "That the (Metropolis Gas Bill) be read a second time on Monday, the 29th April ;" Amendment proposed, "That the Bill be read a second time this day six months ;" Question put, "That the words '29th April' stand part of the Question." But it was now the 2nd May. Mr. Speaker proposed to get over the difficulty, by negativing the Question ; then the Amendment "this day six months" would become the original Motion : that being negatived, the Question, "That the Bill be now read the second time," can with propriety be put, [186] 1922

Adjournment of the House—Right of Reply—The rule with regard to Motions for Adjournment of the House is this :—If the Motion for Adjournment is made while another Motion is before the House, and during the progress of the debate, there is no reply ; but if the Motion for Adjournment is a substantive Motion, the right of reply has been admitted, [186] 1505

Adjournment of the House—the formal Motion —Sir John Pakington having made an Explanation of an Answer given by him on a former occasion, and being followed by Captain Vivian, who said he would, if necessary, put himself in order by moving the adjournment of the House—Mr. Speaker said, the House had permitted a personal explanation to be made ; but the right of moving the adjournment of the House was reserved for occasions on which questions of gravity were brought before it.—March of Troops to Hounslow, [188] 1526

Amendments—Amendment on Amendment—It is not competent to move an Amendment to the Amendment of an hon. Member unless the latter Amendment should have been first adopted by the House.—Fortifications (Provision for Expenses) Bill, [189] 1289

Amendments—Order of putting Questions — Mr. Speaker explains the order in which he will put the Questions, in order to take the decision of the House on a second Amendment to the Motion, "That the (Tenants Improvements Ireland) Bill be now read the second time," [186] 1780

Amendment on the Address—Time for moving —Report of Address in answer to the Queen's Speech brought up, and read ; Moved, to agree to the Address. Mr. Hadfield moved an addition to the Address to the effect that this House represents to Her Majesty its regret that no allusion is made in the Speech from the Throne to the subject of Church Rates—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member for Sheffield was in order in his remarks, but not in his Motion—The time for moving an Amendment to the Address is while it is under discussion for the Second Reading ; but after Motion put, "That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolutions," the opportunity has passed, [185] 78

Amendment on Committee of Supply—Order for Committee read ; Moved, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair ;" an Amendment moved, and negatived. No other Amendment can be proposed.—Representation of the People Bill, [186] 884, 887, 1201, 1285

Bills—Reprints of Bills during consideration in Committee. Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer said, the House had no power to order a Bill still in Committee to be re-printed with the Amendments—Mr. Speaker said, he would see what could be done to meet the wish of the House. — Representation of the People Bill, [187] 1363

Debate—A Member cannot speak twice on the same Question — Motion for Committee of Supply, [186] 316

The House will, perhaps, give permission to an hon. Member to address it a second time on the same Question, so far as may be necessary to clear up any point of moment; but to enter into any general statement would be irregular.—Ireland—The Fenian Prisoners, [186] 1990

Debate—Questions—On Questions of which notice has been given, another Member is in order in asking a further Question; but not in entering into any discussion on the subject. —Representation of the People Bill, [186] 124

Debate—Latitude of speaking in presenting a Petition—An hon. Member is in order in stating the contents and prayer of a Petition he presents.—Ireland—Fenianism—Petition, [186] 1930

Debate—Latitude of speaking in putting a Question — Mr. Newdegate having put a Question to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, of which he had not given notice, respecting the appointment of the Committee on the Ecclesiastical Titles Act, was proceeding with some observations—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman might ask the Question; but was not entitled to enter into the consideration of the construction of the Committee, [186] 292; [187] 1496

Debate—It is not in order to discuss a Question which is not properly before the House—Tyrone Magistrates, [186] 393

Debate—Proper time for discussing a Bill on its merits—Moved, That the Order for the Second Reading (of the Ecclesiastical Titles Bill) be postponed until that day fortnight: Sir George Bowyer rose to address the House — Mr. Speaker suggested that that was not the time for discussing the Bill on its merits—that discussion would be more proper on the Motion, "That the Bill be now read the Second Time," [187] 571

Debate—Proper time for discussing the whole subject—Order for Committee read. An Instruction moved:—after that Motion is disposed of, there will still remain the Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," on which the whole subject will be open to discussion. — Representation of the People Bill, [186] 1272

Debate—It is not strictly in order to discuss a Bill on Consideration as amended.—Religious, &c. Buildings (Sites) Bill, [186] 798

Debate—Premature discussion of a Bill or Motion—A Member cannot, by moving the adjournment of the House, raise a discussion on a Bill which is set down to be discussed on a future occasion, [185] 886; [187] 775; [189] 91, 96, 1338

A Member may ask a Question as to the form of proceeding on a Motion standing for a future day; but is not in order in entering into that Motion. — Representation of the People Bill, [185] 886

Debate — Premature discussion of Votes in Supply—The rule is, that on going into Committee of Supply you cannot discuss the particular items of Votes which are set down to be discussed in the Committee, [189] 857

Debate—Discussion of a postponed Motion—It having been suggested that the Factory Acts Extension Bill should be now read the second time, and its further consideration postponed to a distant day: and Mr. Fawcett having expressed an intention of moving in the interval a Resolution which would raise the whole question—Mr. Speaker said, that proceeding would not be in accordance with the Rules of the House, [186] 451

Debate—The Question may be put again—The Question that the House resolve itself into Committee to consider the Acts relating to Public Houses having been put under unusual circumstances, in consequence of which Mr. Roebuck was too late to move an Amendment—Mr. Speaker suggested that as there had been a misunderstanding, the better course would be that the Mover should make his statement, and that the Question should be put again.—Public Houses, &c. Bill, [186] 160

Debate—Right of Reply — An hon. Member who has moved an Instruction to a Committee is not entitled to a reply.— Tests Abolition (Oxford) Bill, [186] 1443

Motion for adjournment of the House. The rule with regard to Motions for Adjournment of the House is this:—If the Motion for Adjournment is made while another Motion is before the House, and during the progress of the debate, there is no reply; but if the Motion for Adjournment is a substantive Motion, the right of reply has been admitted, [186] 1505

Debate—Reference to a past debate is not in order, [185] 1124; [189] 895

Debate—Reference to a debate in the House of Lords—Mr. Speaker: He would remind the noble Lord (Lord Elcho) that he was precluded from quoting anything which had been said in the other House during the present Session in reference to these particular measures.—Army of Reserve—Resolution, [189] 91, 92; Ireland—Habeas Corpus Suspension Act, [189] 895

Debate — Relevancy of Debate, [185] 1268; [186] 858, 860, 864, 880; [188] 955, 1309

Debate—Unparliamentary Expressions—When an hon. Member has been duly returned to this House, to say that he is returned by the refuse of a large constituency is an expression not in order.—Meetings in Royal Parks Bill, [188] 1895

Debate— Unparliamentary Expressions—"The statements which have been made in the course of this debate are malicious and calumnious"—Mr. Speaker said, these words should not have been used.—Pension to Mr. Young, [186] 441

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions—The terms "a more foul calumny," "a more gigantic falsehood," "a glaring falsehood," though not addressed to any particular Member of this House, or pointed at any particular allegation, are hardly such as should be used in this House.—Habeas Corpus Suspension (Ireland), &c. Bill, [187] 953

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions — An hon. Member having described some remarks made by another hon. Member on a person not of the House, as "wanton and cowardly" attacks — Mr. Osborne rose to order; the word "cowardly" is quite unknown in this House. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member would no doubt withdraw that word.—Case of Mr. Churchward, [186] 173

Debate—Unparliamentary Expressions — After the terms in which Fenianism has been described by this House—"a conspiracy adverse alike to authority, property, and religion, and condemned alike by all who are interested in their maintenance"—for an hon. Gentleman to say that the Roman Catholic clergy are the originators of Fenianism, is a statement which cannot but be offensive in this House, and cannot be allowed to pass.—Offices and Oaths Bill, [185] 1122

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions — An hon. Member having said that "the Orangemen had as much right to have their opinions represented in that House as the Fenians had;" and afterwards explained that "he had simply meant the sympathizers with the Fenians"—it was moved that the words be taken down. Mr. Speaker said, it was most improper to apply such expressions to any Members of the House, after the terms in which the House had stigmatized Fenianism—Administration of Justice (Ireland), [186] 884

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions — Motion made for a Select Committee to inquire into transactions of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company: Notice of Amendment to add "and also into the means adopted" by certain Members of this House "for raising money." These words do not necessarily imply an imputation of fraud, and there is nothing in the Notice that can be considered a violation of order.—London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, [186] 1343

Instructions to Committee — The course the hon. Member (Mr. Fawcett) proposes to take is not in order, because the Committee has power already to make the alteration in the Bill to which the Instruction points—Where a thing can be done voluntarily, it should not be done in a mandatory form.—Increase of the Episcopate Bill, [189] 1069

An hon. Member who has moved an Instruction to a Committee is not entitled to a reply, [186] 1443

Members' Seats in this House—Mr. Speaker explains the rule and practice in regard to retaining seats in the House—The House has laid down the rule that no card placed upon a seat can command or secure that seat in the absence of the hon. Member placing it there; but as Members attending Committees are placed under a disadvantage by that rule, an understanding exists that an hon. Member, coming down to the House in the morning to attend a Committee, and placing his hat upon a seat as an indication of his personal attendance in the performance of his duties, shall be entitled to retain that seat, [188] 163

Motion—Motion which expresses an opinion in reference to a Bill before the House—Mr. Speaker having read Lord Elcho's Motion as far as the words "inconvenience to the people," said he must stop there; because the next Resolution of the noble Lord called on the House to express an opinion, and, indeed, to arrive at a decision, on Bills before they had been discussed or read a second time in that House.—Army of Reserve—Resolutions, [189] 96

Motion—Withdrawal of a Motion—A Motion having been proposed to the House cannot be withdrawn without the consent of the House—Some hon. Members objecting, the Question must be put.—Administration of Justice (Ireland), [186] 887

Notices—Alteration of Notices of Questions—See Questions

Order—The Appropriation Bill—Mr. Darby Griffith called attention to the fact that a Bill (The Appropriation Bill) had been read a first time on Saturday without any Notice that it was about to be introduced — Mr. Speaker said, it had always been customary to introduce the Appropriation Bill as soon as the House had agreed to the last Vote in Supply, [189] 1340

Order—Use of the Rooms of this House—A meeting having been held in the Tea-Room, attended by other gentlemen than Members of the House, at which speeches were made by such gentlemen relating to proceedings on the progress of a Bill (the Representation of the People Bill) through the House—Mr. Speaker said, this proceeding is not in accordance with the established rules of the House: the rooms of this building must be reserved for the use of Members only, and for such purposes as may be permitted. And Mr. Speaker made some further explanation, [189] 766

Order — Orders of the Day — Morning and Evening Sittings—Supply being fixed for a Morning Sitting and not then concluded, it was placed at the head of the list of Orders for the Evening Sitting in the Notices printed for the Evening—Mr. Darby Griffith objected that as private Members could not give notice between the Morning and Evening Sitting, it was not competent for the Government to do so—Mr. Speaker said, it was no Notice of any individual Member; it was an Order of the House, Supply not being concluded, that it should stand at the head of the list for the Evening Sitting, [189] 1299

Order—Counting the House—It is competent for any hon. Member to take notice that there are not forty Members present, and he need not remain in the House afterwards if he does not think fit to do so.—Trinity College (Dublin), [188] 56

Orders of the Day—Order for Second Reading (of the Municipal Corporations Charities Bill) read — Viscount Galway moved that the Order be discharged—Mr. Speaker said, it was an unusual course to move the discharge of an Order in the absence of the Member who had charge of the Bill; and, in this case, the hon. Member (Mr. R. Young) had arranged for the postponement of the Second Reading, [187] 208

Order—Formal Motion of Adjournment of the House—The rule with regard to Motions for Adjournment of the House is this:—If the Motion for Adjournment is made while another Motion is before the House, and during the progress of the debate, there is no reply; but if the Motion for Adjournment is a substantive Motion, the Right of Reply has been admitted, [186] 1505

Petitions—Time for Presenting—Petitions in reference to a Bill may not be presented after the Second Reading has been moved—Petitions may be presented after the Order of the Day for the Second Reading read.—Offices and Oaths Bill, [185] 1093

Petitions—Custody of Petitions—Mr. Speaker explains the practice in respect of Petitions referred to a Committee.—Select Committee on Ecclesiastical Titles Act, [189] 1047

Privilege—Time for objecting to a Petition—A Petition having been presented, and objection taken to its terms, an hon. Member moved that it be rejected; but afterwards withdrew his Motion. On a subsequent evening, Mr. Darby Griffith rose, as a Question of Privilege, to call attention to certain expressions in the Petition—Mr. Speaker said, the claim of privilege could not be admitted. When he put the Question, "That the Petition do lie on the table," no objection was raised—the House received the Petition. If any hon. Member wished to take further action on the Petition, he must do so by Notice.—Fenianism—Petition, [187] 13

Privilege of Members—The subject of the accommodation provided for Members of the House on occasion of the Naval Review is not a question of Parliamentary Privilege.—The Naval Review, [188] 1519

Privilege—Members' Seats in this House—See that Title

Privilege—Alteration of Notices of Questions—See Questions

Privilege—Amendment affecting the Incidence of Rating—On Report of the Representation of the People Bill Clause 5, an addition moved to the Clause, providing that where premises are let for less than a year, &c., the owner, as well as the occupier, shall be liable to the rates, notwithstanding any contract—Mr. Speaker said, that the proposal imposing a charge not at present existing, should have been submitted in Committee, [188] 1458

Question—A Question which has reference to proceedings before a Select Committee which has not yet made a Report to the House, is irregular.—Ecclesiastical Titles and Roman Catholic Relief Acts, [189] 604

Questions—Alteration of Notices of Questions—Mr. Whalley having stated that he had yesterday handed to the Clerk at the table Notice of a Question; and that that Notice as published with the Votes was materially altered in terms—Mr. Speaker said, the House was aware that it was continually the duty and practice of the Clerks at the table to amend and alter in some degree the Notices that are given, some of which are not in form, and others open to various objections—a difficult duty which, Mr. Speaker said, in his judgment, the Clerks have performed with great discretion, and generally with great advantage to the conduct of the business of the House, [188] 1066

Select Committees—Evidence—The usual time for the return of Evidence sent to witnesses for correction is three days. The period was, however, sometimes extended.—Ecclesiastical Titles Act, [189] 1223

Supply—Amendment on Committee of Supply—One Amendment to the Motion for going into Committee of Supply having been negatived, it is not competent for an hon. Member to move another Amendment, [186] 884, 887, 1201, 1285

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1867.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

Amendt. on Committee of Supply July 15, To leave out from "That," and add "a Committee of Five Members be appointed by the Committee of Selection to inquire into the following allegations : — That in 1864 the Royal Gun Factories, on being applied to by the Ordnance Select Committee for Estimates for cheaper 9-inch guns than those that were being made at that time, sent in erroneous comparative Estimates, on the strength of which the Ordnance Select Committee decided in favour of the gun proposed by the Royal Gun Factories ; that a sample 9-inch gun was then made by the Royal Gun Factories, the details of the cost of which, on being compared with the details of the cost of similar guns manufactured two years afterwards, show great and apparently inexplicable discrepancies ; and that like errors have been made by the Royal Gun Factories with regard to the comparative cost of new wrought-iron and converted guns, thereby entailing a heavy and unnecessary expense upon the country" (Major Anson) July 15, [193] 1254 ; Question, "That the words, &c."

Education

Moved to Resolve, "1. That in the Opinion of this House the Education of the Working Classes in England and Wales ought to be extended and improved: Every Child has a moral Right to the Blessings of Education, and it is the Duty of the State to guard and maintain that Right. In the Opinion of this House the Diffusion of Knowledge ought not to be hindered by Religious Differences; nor should the early Employment of the Young in Labour be allowed to deprive them of Education: 2. That it is the Opinion of this House that Parliament and Government should aid in the Education of the Middle Classes by providing for the better Administration of Charitable Endowments: 3. That it is the Opinion of this House that the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge may be made more useful to the Nation by the Removal of Restrictions, and by the better Distribution of their large Revenues for Purposes of Instruction in connection with the said Universities: 4. That the Appointment of a Minister of Education by the Crown, with a seat in the Cabinet, would, in the Opinion of this House, be conducive to the Public Benefit" (Earl Russell) Dec 2, [190] 493; after debate, Question put; resolved in the negative

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. Denison) Nottinghamshire, N.
Lord Elcho said, that if hon. Members had no consideration for themselves they should at least have some consideration for the Speaker, who had, with the exception of the two hours between four and six, been practically in the Chair since twelve o'clock, and it was now twenty minutes to three. Mr. Speaker said, he felt obliged to the hon. Gentlemen who had made the appeal in his behalf; but he wished that hon. Members, without any reference to his convenience, should be guided by what they considered proper and suitable and becoming the dignity of the House.—Metropolitan Foreign Cattle Market Bill, [193] 1343

Adjournment—Moved that the House, at its rising, do adjourn until Monday; objected, that the Motion for Adjournment must be put before a Motion for fixing the adjournment to a particular day—Mr. Speaker said, that the Motion was in Order, though the course mentioned was the one usually pursued, [193] 1737

Amendments in Committee — Entry on the Votes—Those Amendments only, in Committee, upon which divisions take place are entered on the Votes.—Marine Mutiny Bill, [191] 574

Amendment — Amendment altering the Incidence of Taxation—Election Petitions, &c. Bill, considered as amended; The Solicitor General moved to strike out Clause 53, which provided that the cost of hustings, &c. should be borne by the whole of the ratepayers. Mr. Labouchere objected that the omission of the clause would throw the burden on a limited number of persons, and that, as the Amendment altered the incidence of taxation, it could not now be proposed—Mr. Speaker said, it was quite competent for the hon. and learned Gentleman to propose the rejection of the clause, as the omission of the clause would have the effect of relieving the ratepayers of a charge which it was proposed to place upon them, [193] 1688

Amendment—Amendment reserving a charge on the Consolidated Fund—The West Indies Bill proposed to relieve the Consolidated Fund of a charge of £20,000 hitherto annually paid to the clergy in the West India Islands — Amendment proposed, that the annual payment of £2,000 be continued to the co-adjutor Bishop under certain circumstances. Objected, that the Amendment should have originated in Committee—Mr. Speaker said, that it appeared to him that the question raised was whether the Consolidated Fund should be relieved of £20,000 or of £18,000 only. No new charge was imposed upon the Consolidated Fund, and therefore it was a question to be decided by the House upon its merits, and not by an opinion from the Chair, [193] 1888, 1920

Amendment affecting the Incidence of Taxation—Mr. Speaker said, the Amendment, it seemed to him, had this effect—that improvements undertaken beyond the limits of the City of London would, after the alteration proposed, affect the taxation on the City of London. In that case, it would effect an alteration of taxation which should have originated in a Committee of the Whole House.—Artizans' and Labourers' Dwellings Bill, [191] 1877

Amendments—There being a Motion and an Amendment already before the House, it is not competent for an hon. Member to move a second Amendment. It is impossible to put the second Amendment until the first is disposed of, [190] 1342; [191] 2051; [193] 1256

Amendment—Mr. Speaker suggests that a new clause which had been moved could, if the House thought fit, be postponed, and brought up again as an Amendment to a clause about to be proposed.—Corrupt Practices at Elections Bill, [193] 1629

Amendment—Amendment which would practically defeat a Bill—Metropolitan Foreign Cattle Market Bill—Order for Committee read. An hon. Member asked whether it was competent to a right hon. Member to move at that stage an Amendment of which he had given notice, the effect of which, if carried, would be to defeat the measure?—Mr. Speaker said, it was quite competent for the right hon. Member to move the Amendment, [193] 103

Amendments on Committee of Supply on Fridays—It is a rule of the House that no original Motion shall be made without due notice; but of late years, upon the Question of going into Committee of Supply on

Fridays, the Motions all partake of the nature of original Motions, though made in the form of Amendments to the Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." This is a new practice, and Mr. Speaker said he should like to know if it is the opinion of the House that Notices for Friday should be given in sufficient time, and in as complete a form, as original Motions, [191] 2053

Amendment—Question proposed, "That the House resolve itself into Committee;" an Amendment moved thereon—If the House affirm "that the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question," that will be decisive of the Amendment: then will come the Main Question, which will stand disembarrassed from all other words.—Established Church (Ireland) Bill, [191] 708

Amendment—An Amendment which in reality anticipates discussion on every clause of a Bill and of some Amendments, exceeds the limits prescribed for such Motions by the Rules of the House.—Representation of the People (Ireland) Bill, [192] 1571

Amendment — Relevancy of Amendment to Question—Representation of the People (Scotland) Bill. Motion for Committee — Mr. Rearden having moved an Amendment that the United Kingdom be divided into equal electoral districts—Mr. Speaker said, that a portion of the Resolution related to Ireland, and was not in order, [192] 472

Bills—Bills affecting the Prerogative of the Crown—According to the practice of Parliament, a measure to limit the Prerogative of the Crown cannot pass a third reading, unless the consent of the Crown has been first obtained.—Peerage (Ireland) Bill, [191] 1564

Bills—Reading a Bill—Motion made, that the Established Church (Ireland) Bill be read by the Clerk at the Table—Mr. Speaker said, that when a proposal of a similar kind was made two Sessions ago, it was agreed by the House that the reading of a Bill by the Clerk at the Table was an exploded practice, [192] 322

Bills—Relevancy of title of Bill—Registration (Ireland) Bill—Order for Committee read—Mr. Esmonde objected that the title of the Bill did not cover its contents, inasmuch as a Registration Bill could not be presumed to contain provisions in reference to polling places—Mr. Speaker said, that most Bills, after indicating the contents, contained the words "and for other purposes." In this instance these words did not occur; but the objection taken by the hon. Member was a preliminary one, which ought to have been offered on the second reading, and it was now too late to make it, [193] 1486

Bills—Appointing day for the second reading—The practice is, on every occasion that a Bill is brought in, to fix the second reading after it has been read a first time.—Established Church (Ireland) Bill, [192] 322

Bills—The principle of a Bill is affirmed by the passing the second reading.—Sale of Liquors on Sunday Bill, [190] 1869

Bill—Time for Motion—Mr. Hubbard having spoken against the second reading of the Burials (Ireland) Bill sat down without making his Motion "That the Bill be read a second time on this day six months." Several hon. Members having spoken, Mr. Hubbard rose to make the Motion—Mr. Speaker ruled that the hon. Member could not now do so, [191] 1083

Committees—Chairman of Committees—Order—A point of Order arising in Committee should be addressed at once to the Chairman, and cannot be questioned on a subsequent occasion.—The Chairman of Committees is the proper judge of those matters which come under his notice in Committee—Mr. Speaker said, he could not interfere with the decision of the Chairman at the suggestion of an individual Member: to authorize him to do so, the question must be brought before him by the direction of the House.—Abyssinian Expedition, [190] 426—Established Church (Ireland), [191] 1948

Debate—Adjournment of a debate on Wednesday. Mr. Gladstone rising to move for leave to bring in the Established Church (Ireland) Bill—Mr. Newdegate objected, that it was then seven minutes to six o'clock (it being a Rule of the House that on Wednesdays no opposed Business shall be proceeded with after a Quarter before Six o'clock)

Mr. Speaker said, that according to the Rule of the House if the hon. Member objected to the Motion being brought on at that hour it could not be proceeded with, [192] 232

Debate—Latitude of speaking—Bill considered as amended. On Question, "That the said clause be now read a second time"—Mr. Speaker said, that the Question being whether this particular clause should pass, a general argument could hardly be allowed.—Artizans' and Labourers' Dwellings Bill, [191] 1565

Debate—Explanation—Time for Explanation—An hon. Member desiring to explain his remarks must reserve his explanation until after the hon. Gentleman then in possession of the House has concluded his remarks, [191] 1106

It is at the option of the Member in possession of the House to give way or not to an immediate explanation, [191] 1106; [192] 749

Debate—Personal Explanation—Question relating to the Foreign Office, asked and answered. Mr. Layard (late Under Secretary of State) wished to say a word or two by way of explanation—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member for Southwark desires to make a personal explanation, and under these circumstances a statement is generally allowed, [190] 607

Debate—Limitation of Explanation.—It is not competent for an hon. Member, in explanation, to reply to a speech just made: he must confine himself to any point on which he may himself have been misunderstood.—Canongate Annuity Tax Bill, [191] 1106

Debate—Premature Discussion of a Motion—An hon. Member having given Notice of a Motion respecting the Declaration against Transubstantiation, cannot, on a Motion for a Copy of the Declaration, enter at length into the subject, which stands for future consideration, [192] 1099

Debate—Premature Discussion—It is not competent to discuss the question of referring a Bill to a Select Committee on the Motion for the Second Reading: that could only be considered when the Bill had been read a second time.—County Financial Boards Bill, [191] 1556

Select Committees—If a Committee has not reported it is out of Order to comment in this House on the evidence taken before it.—Navy—Iron-clad Fleet, [193] 1124

Debate—Questions—Mr. Speaker suggests that it would not be convenient that a debate should take place on [a] subject merely on the putting of a Question.—Abyssinia—Production of Papers, [190] 650

Debate—Reference to a past Debate in this House is not in Order, [190] 422, 610; [191] 1302; [192] 1074

Debate—Comments on Debates in this House—An hon. Member is not in Order in introducing in this House any comments by other individuals upon the debates which have taken place in this House, [190] 422, 425; [191] 2030

Debate—Reference to Debates in the House of Lords—The rule of the House is that allusion to debates in the other House of Parliament should not be made in this; but it is scarcely possible that, under all circumstances, the rule can be construed in an absolutely literal manner. And Mr. Speaker referred to certain exceptional circumstances then existing, [191] 1786

There is no Rule in existence, forbidding reference to debates in the other House, in a shape that it can be formally rescinded—Certain Rules are to be found in a book which defines what the observances of Parliament are; but they are not in the nature of Standing Orders, [192] 1078

Debate—Speaking twice on the same Question—Question proposed; Amendment moved, and negatived; original Question again proposed—Mr. Newdegate rose to address the House—Mr. Speaker said, that in moving the Amendment the hon. Member had spoken on the original Question, and therefore could not speak again.—Abyssinia—Motion for Papers, [190] 674

Order for Committee read; Question proposed, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair;" Amendment moved, and negatived; original Question put, and negatived. The Motion, "That Mr. Speaker, &c.," when made on a subsequent day, is a new Motion, and the Member moving is in order in addressing the House.—Revenue Officers Disabilities Removal Bill, [193] 389, 391

The Prime Minister having, in the course of debate, introduced a proposal of an entirely new character—namely, that the question of Boundaries of Boroughs be referred to a Select Committee—Mr. Speaker suggested that it might be the opinion of the House that other hon. Gentlemen, who might feel an interest in the matter, should also have the opportunity of speaking upon it, [192] 279

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Rearden, having given notice to ask a Question relative to Her Majesty the Queen, and being called to Order—Mr. Speaker said, "The House has anticipated my decision by the expression—the indignant expression—of feeling with regard to the terms employed in the Notice of the hon. Member. No doubt Questions may be addressed by a Member of this House to the confidential Advisers of the Crown as to any matter relating to the discharge of public duties by the Sovereign; but these Questions must be addressed in respectful and Parliamentary terms. The Question of the hon. Member is not couched in such terms, and cannot be put, [192] 711

Debate — Unparliamentary Expressions — An hon. Member having used the expression "factious opposition to the Bill," in reference to the course pursued by a right hon. Member—Mr. Speaker said, that under the circumstances of the case, he certainly thought the expression was too strong a one. —Motion for Adjournment, [193] 1742

Debate—Unparliamentary Expressions—It is scarcely in order for an hon. Member to use the word "dodge" in reference to the proceedings of another Member in a Parliamentary proceeding.—Metropolitan Foreign Cattle Market Bill, [193] 1297

Divisions—Mr. Speaker's Vote—On Division on Motion for second reading of the Married Women's Property Bill, the numbers being equal, Mr. Speaker declared himself with the Ayes, and stated his reasons for so doing, [192] 1378

Instructions—Time for objecting to an Instruction—The proper time for objecting to any Instruction to be given to a Committee is when the Instruction is under discussion.—Representation of the People (Scotland) Bill, [192] 469

Members' Seats in this House—Mr. Speaker repeats the rule, generally accepted by the House, in regard to the retention of Members' seats. Any Member who, having come down to the House in the morning in the discharge of his duty on a Committee, shall, before prayers, place his hat on a seat as an indication of his personal attendance within the precincts of the House, will be permitted to retain that seat, as though he were present in the House, [191] 698

Oaths of Roman Catholic Members—Mr. Freville-Surtees, having stated that Mr. Speaker had ruled that the Roman Catholic Members who took the Oath before the 30th April, 1866, are bound by the Oath taken by Roman Catholic Members previously to that time—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member has misconceived my meaning. I gave no such decision as he apprehends.—Roman Catholic Oath, [191] 1582; [192] 1208

Order of Business on Tuesdays—It is an ancient rule of the House that on Tuesdays Notices of Motion have precedence of Orders of the Day. Mr. Bouverie complained that on the Notice Paper of Tuesday, March 31, the Mutiny and Marine Mutiny Bills were set down in precedence of the Notices of Motion—Mr. Speaker said, that there was nothing irregular or unprecedented in this proceeding; the course taken with regard to these Bills was quite in conformity with precedent, and only for the promotion of the despatch of Public Business, [191] 573

Petitions—The time for presenting Petitions is before five o'clock, and up to that hour, at any moment when there is no business before the House, a Member is perfectly in Order in presenting Petitions, [190] 1893

Questions—To whom they may be put—The rule with regard to Questions is, that Questions may be put to Ministers of the Crown relating to public affairs, and to other Members relating to any Bill or Motion connected with the Business of the House in which such Members are concerned, [192] 717

Questions—Pertinency to Subject before the House—There being a Motion before the House upon which it is competent for any Member to address the House—to address a Question to the Government on a subject not connected with anything before the House is not pertinent to the argument, and ought not to be introduced.—Ex-Governor Eyre, [192] 839

Questions—Relevancy of introductory Remarks—An hon. Member does not act in accordance with the Rules of the House in not confining himself to such matter as is necessary for explaining the grounds on which he puts the Question. — Ex-Governor Eyre, [192] 1850

Questions—Mr. Speaker suggests that it would not be convenient that a debate should take place on [a] subject merely on the putting of a Question. — Abyssinia — Production of Papers, [190] 650

Select Committee—It is not competent to discuss the question of referring a Bill to a Select Committee on the Motion for the Second Reading: that could only be considered when the Bill had been read a second time.—County Financial Boards Bill, [191] 1556

See Committees—Chairman of Committees.

Select Committee—A Notice of the names of hon. Members to serve on a Select Committee given before the House has decided that a Bill be referred to a Select Committee, would be of no effect, [192] 15

Select Committees—An hon. Member cannot canvass the composition of a Committee until it has been agreed that a Committee shall be appointed, and the names have been put severally from the Chair.—Boundaries of Boroughs, [192] 427

Select Committees—Powers of a Select Committee—A Bill being referred, the powers of the Select Committee are confined to the subject-matter of the Bill: if it be desired to proceed further, and to take into consideration [a subject not within the scope of the Bill] that could not be done without a Special Instruction to the Committee. — Sale of Liquors on Sunday Bill, [190] 1869
Select Committees—If a Committee has not reported, it is out of Order to comment in this House on the evidence taken before it.—Navy—Iron-clad Fleet, [193] 1124
Supply—Latitude of Observation—On Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," an hon. Committee—Instruction—A proposed Instruction to a Committee is not in order when the Committee already possesses the power proposed to be given to it by the Instruction. By a Standing Order of 1854 all Committees have the power to make such Amendments as they deem fit in Bills, provided they are relevant to the subject of the Bill.—Irish Church Bill, [195] 847

Debate—A document not yet laid before the House cannot be accepted as an authentic record.—Dublin Election, [195] 1273

Debate—Latitude in Debate—A Member appearing to be discussing a subject, though there was no Question before the House, being called to Order—Mr. Speaker said, I think the House will allow the right hon. Gentleman a reasonable latitude; but I think also I must lay emphasis on the word "reasonable."—Recent Negotiations with the United States, [197] 1427, 1428

Debate—Limitation of Explanation—A Member who, under certain circumstances, has moved, "That the House do now adjourn," and subsequently wishes to withdraw his Motion, must limit his Explanation to the grounds on which he desires to do so.—Regina v. Overend, Gurney, & Co. [197] 995

Debate—Premature Discussion of a Subject—It is contrary to the rules of the House for a Member to enter upon the discussion of a Question on which he proposes a discussion on a future day.—Recent Negotiations with the United States, [197] 1428

Debate—Relevancy of Debate—On Motion for a Suspension of the Orders of the Day for the purpose of enabling the House to hold Morning Sittings, the conduct of the Mayor of Cork having been referred to, and Mr. Dawson Damer proposing to continue the subject—Mr. Speaker reminded the hon. Member that there was no Question before the House which would entitle hon. Members to discuss any Irish Question, [195] 1981; [196] 581

Debate—Speaking twice in the same debate

The Lords having struck out certain words in the Irish Church Bill, Mr. Gladstone moved "That the House do disagree with the Lords in the said Amendment." Mr. Newdegate spoke on that Question. The Motion was withdrawn, and another Motion made limited to a part only of the Lords Amendment. Mr. Newdegate rose to speak: objected to; Mr. Speaker said, this being a new Question the hon. Member was perfectly in Order, [197] 1941, 1948

Mr. Gladstone's Motion having been agreed to, he moved to disagree with the Lords in the remainder of the said Amendment; after a short debate, Mr. Gladstone rose to address the House: objected to; Mr. Speaker said, that the right hon. Gentleman having made the Motion had deprived himself of the power of speaking on it, [197] 1949

Right of reply. An hon. Member who has moved an Amendment has no right of reply—Freedom of Speech—Arrest of Mr. Murphy, [198] 632

Moved, "That the [University Tests] Bill be now read the second time;" Mr. Beresford Hope moved, "That the debate be now adjourned;" Mr. Bentinck seconded the Motion; on division, negatived; Question again proposed, "That the word 'now,' &c." Mr. Beresford Hope rose to address the House on the main Question. Mr. Speaker said, that the hon. Member having made a Motion had exhausted his powers in this debate

Mr. Bentinck also rose to speak, saying that as he had seconded the Motion [for the adjournment of the debate] merely by a gesture, he thought he was at liberty to address the House on the main Question. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member having seconded the Motion was not entitled to address the House—University Tests Bill, [194] 1451, 1469

Mr. Newdegate rose to speak, saying that he would conclude with a Motion. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member having spoken in the debate could not make a Motion.

A Member who has moved the adjournment of a debate has, by the common acceptation of the House, the pre-audience when the debate is resumed

If, however, the House has declined to accede to the Motion, and has divided upon it, the Member who moved it, having had the opportunity of addressing the House had he thought fit, has lost the power of addressing the House on the main Question, [194] 1470; [196] 1365

Debate—Effect of Question, "That Mr. Speaker, &c.," on subsequent Motions—Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." An Amendment moved; Question, "That the words, &c." put, and agreed to. Question proposed, "That Mr. Speaker, &c." The House having agreed that the words stand part of the Question, a Member cannot move a Resolution by way of Amendment.—Regina v. Overend, Gurney & Co., [197] 977, 980

Debate—Motion for Adjournment of the House—Mr. Speaker reminds the House that the privilege of moving the Adjournment of the House upon asking a Question had been reserved by the common consent of the House for occasions of urgency.—Ireland—Rates on Disturbed Districts, [196] 19

Debate—Adjournment of the House—A Member who has spoken in the debate cannot move the adjournment of the House.—Liabilities of Railway Companies, [194] 1451, 1469; [198] 1439

Debate—Effect of moving or seconding a Motion for the adjournment of a debate—Where

a Member has moved the adjournment of the debate, and another Member has seconded it, it is not competent for either the Mover or Seconder of such a Motion immediately to rise and move the adjournment of the House. That must be done by some other voices.—[194] 1469

Debate—Right of Member who has moved the adjournment of a debate—Where an hon. Member has moved the adjournment of the debate, and the House has agreed, that Member has, by the common acceptation of the House, the right of præ-audience when the debate is resumed

When however the House has declined to accede to the Motion, and has divided upon it, the hon. Member who moved it, and had an opportunity to address the House if he chose, has under those circumstances lost the power of addressing the House on the Main Question.—[194] 1470; [196] 1365

Debate—Division of a proposition—The Lords having struck out words in a clause of the Irish Church Bill, and inserted other words in their place—Mr. Gladstone moved, "That the House doth disagree with the Lords in the said Amendment." Mr. Cross asked whether it was in Order to move that the proposition be divided, and that the Question be put as to the first part, stopping at the word "religion?"—Mr. Speaker said, it was possible to move an Amendment on the proposition before the House; and if the hon. Member moved an Amendment such as he had suggested, it might be done without infringing the Rules of the House.—Irish Church Bill, Lords Amendments, [197] 1921

Debate—On Motion for a Select Committee to inquire into the operation and effect of the Game Laws in Scotland, in respect of which several Bills were before the House, Lord Elcho entering into the merits of those measures—Mr. Speaker reminded his Lordship that he had entered into an engagement with the House that he would not enter into the details of these Bills.—Game Laws (Scotland), [195] 1718

Debate—Reference to a speech made in a past Debate in the present Session is not in Order.—Parliamentary and Municipal Elections, [194] 1496

Debate—Reference to Debate in the other House—Neither as a point of Privilege nor of Order can a Question referring to language used in the other House of Parliament, be with propriety addressed to the Speaker of this House, [198] 368

Debate—Order—A Member is not in Order in referring to the proceedings of a Committee now Sitting, [197] 1322

Debate—Order in Debate—Lord Claud Hamilton having used strong expressions in reference to the conduct of the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. W. M. Torrens rose to Order, and remarked upon the noble

Lord's language in general terms.—Mr Speaker said, that when an hon. Member rose to Order, he was not at liberty to review the general tenor of a Speech, but must object to some definite expression at the moment it is spoken.—State of Ireland, [195] 2008

Debate—Motion—Effect of Motion made—A Member who has made a Motion has deprived himself of the power of speaking on it, [197] 1949

Debate—Withdrawal of a Motion—A Resolution having been moved is in the possession of the House, and it is for the House to decide whether it will permit the whole or any part of it to be withdrawn.—Freedom of Speech—Arrest of Mr. Murphy, [198] 633

Election Petitions—A Petition complaining of the "illusory character" of the qualification of certain voters of Peebles and Selkirk at the General Election, and praying for a remedy, is not an Election Petition within the Corrupt Practices Act. Sec. 50.—Faggot Votes in Peeblesshire, [194] 1185

Instruction—A proposed Instruction to a Committee is not in order when the Committee already possesses the power proposed to be given to it by the Instruction. By a Standing Order of 1854 all Committees have the power to make such Amendments as they deem fit in Bills, provided they are relevant to the subject of the Bill.—Irish Church Bill, [195] 847

Questions—Motion for Adjournment of the House on asking a Question—Mr. Speaker reminds the House that the privilege of moving the Adjournment of the House on asking a Question has been reserved by the common consent of the House for occasions of urgency.—Ireland—Rates on Disturbed Districts, [196] 19

Capture and Murder of British Subjects, Correspondence (Parts I. and II., 1870) presented (The Earl of Clarendon); short debate thereon April 28, [200] 1960; Observations, The Earl of Carnarvon; Reply, The Earl of Clarendon; short debate thereon May 23, [201] 1162
Moved, "That an humble address be presented to Her Majesty to assure Her Majesty that the House continues to regard with the deepest grief and horror the late atrocious murders perpetrated near Athens by a band of organized brigands on the persons of several of Her Majesty's subjects, including the Secretary of Her Majesty's Legation; to thank Her Majesty for the ample and early accounts thereof which it has pleased Her Majesty to communicate to the House; to submit whether there be not grounds for apprehending that the lives of the lamented victims were mainly sacrificed to parties acting more or less in secret understanding with the brigands; and to express an earnest hope that such further steps as Her Majesty may please to take with reference to these matters will be directed not only to the immediate suppression of brigandage in Greece but more especially to the removal of its real causes, be they what they may, in discharge of the obligations virtually contracted by Her Majesty and Her Majesty's Allies as the constituted protectors of that kingdom" (Viscount Stratford de Redcliffe) July 11, [203] 5; after long debate, Motion withdrawn

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. DENISON) Nottinghamshire, N.
Mr. SPEAKER informs the House that he had been honoured by an invitation from the Chancellor of the University of Oxford to attend at Oxford on Wednesday next, in order that the degree of Doctor of Civil Law might be conferred on him by that University: and Mr. SPEAKER said, that should the House be pleased to afford him the indulgence of being absent on that day, he should be happy to proceed to Oxford and show his sense of the compliment which had been proposed to him by his old University
Whereupon Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Disraeli expressed the satisfaction of the House at the distinction which was about to be conferred on him, and moved that Mr. Dodson, the Chairman of the Committees of Ways and Means, do take the Chair during the right hon. Gentleman's absence June 20, [202] 495

Bill—Amendment—Effect of Amendment upon title of Bill—University Tests Bill—Bill, as amended, considered; a new clause moved; an Amendment moved, to insert the words "within the United Kingdom." An hon. Member inquired whether what was proposed would come within the title of the Bill?—Mr. Speaker said, the whole question involved in the subject-matter of the Bill might be raised on the Report. Under those circumstances, an hon. Member would have power to move such words, although if adopted they would necessitate an alteration in the title of the Bill, [202] 1386

resolved in the affirmative or negative in the same Session—Emigration to the Colonies, [201] 824

One of the objects of the [Game Laws Abolition] Bill being to repeal the Act 25 & 26 Vict. c. 14; but the House having already rejected another Bill for the repeal of the said Act, it was objected that, as the House could not consider the same question twice in the same Session, this would be fatal to the passing of this Bill—Mr. Speaker pointed out that this Bill had been printed before the decision referred to was arrived at:—the course would be, that the Bill should proceed until they came to the Schedule in Committee, when it would be competent to strike out so much of the Bill as proposed the repeal of the Act in question, [203] 563

Debate—Explanation—Time for making Explanation—An hon. Member rising and interrupting a Member speaking for the purpose of offering an explanation, Mr. Speaker intimated that the hon. and gallant Member could explain himself when the First Lord of the Treasury had concluded his observations—Naval Retirement—Resolution, [200] 165

Debate—Reference to debate in same Session—No Member is to allude to any debate in the same Session upon a Question or Bill not being then under discussion, except by the indulgence of the House for personal explanation, [203] 1613

Debate—Reference to Reports of Debates in Book or Newspaper—No Member may read from a printed newspaper or book the report of any speech made in Parliament during the present Session, [203] 1613

Debate—Speaking twice in the same debate—Order read for resuming adjourned debate on Conventual and Monastic Institutions (Mr. Newdegate). Mr. Newdegate rose to address the House, but was met with cries of Order! Order! Chair! Chair! Mr. Speaker said, that as the hon. Member had already spoken in the debate, he could not again address the House without its permission, [201] 52, 55, 56

Debate—Speaking twice in the same debate—An hon. Member who has moved the adjournment of the debate has exhausted his powers of speaking—Elementary Education Bill, [202] 298

Debate—Effect of Re-committal of Bill on the right of Members who have given notice of Amendments in Committee to speak

It having been proposed that the Elementary Education Bill should be committed pro formâ in order that Amendments might be made—an hon. Member asked in what positions those Members who had Amendments on the Paper would be placed, if that course were adopted. Mr. Speaker said, that if the House should go into Committee pro formâ, and the Bill should be reprinted, every hon. Member would, at the recommencement of the debate, be informed as to the main principles of the change proposed by the Prime Minister; and every hon. Member who had an Amendment on the Paper would have a right to speak—Elementary Education Bill, [202] 298, 299

Debate—Premature discussion of a Question. Moved, "That the (Game Laws Amendment) Bill be now read the second time." An hon. Member proceeding to discuss the whole question of Game Laws—Mr. Speaker said, that the discussion must be confined to the special Bill before them:—There was also this additional reason—that notice had been given of the general question of the Game Laws for a future day—Game Laws Amendment Bill, [200] 7

Debate—Relevancy of Debate—On Mr. Fowler's Motion for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal the Contagious Diseases Acts, (1866-69)—Mr. Speaker had been called upon to enforce the rule which forbids the presence of Strangers at the debates of the House. Mr. Henley, pursuant to notice "to draw the attention of the House to the rule or practice of ordering Strangers to withdraw, and the effect thereof," was proceeding to point out the nature of the Acts proposed to be repealed—Mr. Speaker said, that the right hon. Gentleman's notice referred to the rule or practice of excluding Strangers. He might, no doubt, think the occasion on which the right had been exercised a very important one; but Mr. Speaker thought he was not in order in entering into the details of that subject, [201] 1643; [203] 1560

Debate—Relevancy of Debate—Moved, "That the (Game Laws Amendment) Bill be now read the second time." An hon. Member was proceeding to discuss the whole question of the Game Laws—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman was not in order in discussing the general question. They had a Bill before them for a particular object, and the discussion must be confined to that Bill—Game Laws Amendment Bill, [200] 7

Debate—Right of Reply—An hon. Member having put a Question, which was answered, sought to make some observations thereon—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman was entering upon a reply—Bridgwater Election, [199] 805

Debate—Order—To refer to a statement which has been denied by a Member in his place is out of order. It having been stated that Mr. Heron, then a candidate for the county of Tipperary, had upon the hustings called on the mob to give three cheers for the Fenian prisoners; and the hon. and learned Gentleman (who was returned) having denied in the House the language imputed to him—an hon. Member would be out of order in persisting in his reference to the statement—Ireland—Case of Mr. Madden, [200] 918

Debate — Un-Parliamentary Language — The word "calumnious" has been called in question on a previous occasion, when it was not considered to be a word which was un-Parliamentary—Navy—Case of Commander Gurdon, [201] 1455

Debate — Un-Parliamentary Language — An hon. Member having said that the right hon. Gentleman who had just sat down had made statements which, from his experience, he would show to be entirely false—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member means to say erroneous—Unemployed Labour, [202] 442
